

CAN-Connect Presents

The Heroin/Opioid Addiction Crisis: A Community Response

February 16, 2017

Sheriff James Stuart began his career with the Sheriff's Office on February 14, 1994, as a patrol deputy and rose through the ranks.

He has been a Sergeant in Patrol, Justice Services, Administrative Divisions, and served as a Lieutenant overseeing operations in the Patrol Division. Prior to being elected as sheriff, he served as a Captain with the Anoka County Sheriff's Office .

He has a demonstrated commitment to providing the best possible services to the citizens that he proudly serves and actively participates in many collaborative efforts. It is his belief that by working together, we can make a difference.

James is a former Marine, graduate of St. Mary University, and the National Sheriff's Institute.

Sheriff James Stuart is the 17th Sheriff of Anoka County since the office was established in 1857.

Featured Speaker: Sheriff James Stuart 17th Sheriff of Anoka County

Anoka County is not immune to the current heroin and opioid addiction crisis. Join us as Anoka County Sheriff James Stuart, FBI Counsel Jeffery Van Nest & the Jakes Sake Foundation explain what is being done locally to address this issue.

TIME & PLACE:

10:00 – 11:30 a.m.

Unity Hospital Auditorium

550 Osborne Rd

Fridley, MN

This event is free and open to the public.

Cash donations are being accepted at the event.
All donations will benefit Jake Sake Foundation.

Anoka County
SHERIFF'S OFFICE
Keepers of the County

Compassion Nonprofit • County • Faith
Action Network

www.compassionactionnetwork.org

Working in Anoka County to create awareness, collaborate on solutions, and connect resources.