

Domestic Violence: Myths & Realities

Brought to you by CAN - Compassion Action
Network of Anoka County

Featured Speakers:

*Connie Moore, Executive Director,
Alexandra House*

Jess Cheney, MSW, LGSW, Community Education Coordinator, Alexandra House

Connie and Jess will dispel common myths about Domestic Violence and help you gain an understanding of the impact domestic violence has on families & relationships. You will also learn about community resources & supports which are available to survivors & perpetrators.

A Community Panel will present following the keynote address.

Thursday, October 5 from 9:30 AM - 11:30 AM
Fridley City Hall Council Chambers
6431 University Ave NE, Fridley, MN 55432

Networking time and resource tables available prior to and following this event.

Certificates of attendance available.

This event is free and open to the public.

Compassion Action Network

*Working in Anoka
County to create awareness, collaborate on solutions, and connect resources.*

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Connie Moore began advocating for survivors 32 years ago as a volunteer with a battered women's shelter. She came to Alexandra House in 1988 as a women's advocate and became the Intervention Program Coordinator that same year. After a year as Director of Community Intervention at the Domestic Abuse Program, she returned in 1994 returned as Alexandra House's Community Programs Director.

Jess Cheney has over ten years of experience as an advocate, community-based educator, and organizer on issues relating to gender and sexuality. She has been a part of the Alexandra House team since 2015. At Alexandra House, she coordinates the Community Education program which brings the Alexandra House mission to organizations and individuals across Anoka County. In addition, she is responsible for managing and training the nearly 100 Alexandra House volunteers.